

KITTENBERGER SHOW GARDENS & NOAH'S ARK

Do not miss the Kittenberger Show Gardens in Schiltern to discover Langenlois at its most beautiful. More than 50 lovingly created theme gardens over a spacious 60,000 m² area attract over 70,000 visitors every year. Countless winding paths, unrivalled views and gardening perfection at its best invite you to relax for a while or wander at will. At any rate, you will gather many impressions and ideas for your own garden just in passing. Also, why not call in to the show garden shop, which offers a large selection of plants, accessories for your home and garden, garden books, home-made produces and plenty more.

www.kittenberger.at

In the ARCHE NOAH show garden, also at Schiltern, you will learn how important the cultivation of old crops is. This association, with over 17,000 committed members, has given a new home to plants which responsible conscientious gardeners and farmers cultivated for centuries. Take advantage of this unique opportunity and learn about the diversity and properties of more than 6,500 endangered types of vegetables, fruit and corn. And while you are there, why not take a rarity home for your vegetable patch?

www.arche-noah.at

URSIN HAUS AND THE LOISIUM WORLD OF WINE

If there are two places which concentrate all oenological treasures of Langenlois and its surroundings, they are the inviting wine shops of the Ursin Haus and the LOISIUM World of Wine. Come to explore, view and taste the best vintages of renowned winemakers of the wine producing area with all your senses. You can buy all wines at cellar door prices. A special highlight for wine enthusiasts is the tour through the world of viticulture at LOISIUM World of Wine. Don't miss the underground journey with 15 points of interest where you will experience first hand the journey of grape into wine. You will also see a private wine cellar with bottles of Grüner Veltliner from the 1930s and the sparkling wine production of the Steininger winery and discover original cellar architecture.

www.ursinhaus.at www.loisium.at

CULTURE IN LANGENLOIS COURTYARDS AND LANGENLOIS AUTUMN FESTIVAL

You will be offered even more cultural delights when Langenlois takes to the stage for all kinds of performances for a few weeks every year. The event series "Culture in Langenlois Courtyards" (mid-May until end of June) brings new life to the historical courtyards of wine estates. Enjoy "culture from one courtyard to the next" and indulge in an abundant variety of music programmes from classic to jazz, excellent acting performances and readings of contemporary literature. During the "Langenlois Autumn Festival" in November, you can visit vernissages, exhibitions, film shows, readings and concerts as well as numerous lectures.

www.kulturlangenlois.at

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS IN AND AROUND LANGENLOIS

SPRING WINE FESTIVAL IN THE KAMP VALLEY

The last weekend in April, more than 100 winemakers open their cellar doors to present the new vintage to people who are passionate about wine. But the spring-fresh Kamp Valley has more than just its first-class wines to delight its visitors. There is also its magnificent flora and landscape. Just go for a jaunt along the Wine Route or go hiking through the Kamp Valley in full bloom.

www.kamptal.at

TOUR DE VIN

An exclusive group of winemakers who appear under the name "Austrian Traditional Vineries" invented the Tour de Vin. At the beginning of May, the members from the wine-growing areas of Kamp and Krems Valley, Wagram, Traisen Valley and the Wachau invite everybody to taste and buy a great variety of wines. Take this opportunity to talk to the winemakers themselves, enjoy the new vintage first hand and admire the interiors of the most diverse wine cellars in peace and quiet.

www.traditionsweingueter.at

AUTUMN WINE FESTIVAL OF LOWER AUSTRIA

Every year, the Autumn Wine Festival of Lower Austria which lasts for more than 100 days attracts some 350,000 visitors to more than 800 opportunities to enjoy wine. The festival runs from the end of August to the end of November. There can be no doubt that Langenlois is also part of Europe's largest series of wine events. Apart from festivals with vital tradition, a variety of top-level wine tastings, events, joyful tavern parties and, last but not least, the annual wine baptism enrich the colourful calendar of the Autumn Wine Festival.

www.weinherbst.at

LOISIARTE

During the Langenlois Spring Festival of Culture, the LOISIUM World of Wine opens its gates and become the venue for the popular LOISIARTE festival of music and literature. Enjoy top classic and modern presentations which superbly compliment each other to reflect the contrast between old and new so typical of the LOISIUM. You can find the complete programme as well as details about the artists or ticket prices at:

www.loisiarte.at

OPERETTA FESTIVAL

Since 1996, the charming setting of the park and the stylishly renovated Haindorf Castle has seen the successful staging of many operettas. The superior quality of the annual programme makes the national importance of the Operetta Festival undisputed, not only among connoisseurs. During the Festival, a wine village is set up in the park offering the festival visitors the perfect atmosphere to indulge in Langenlois delicacies while enjoying cultural delights.

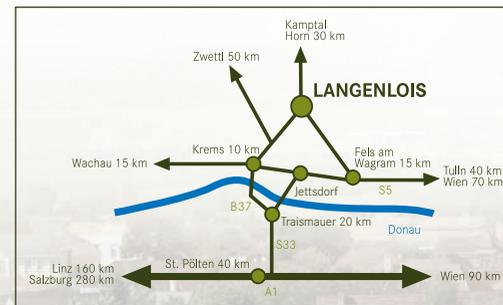

www.operettelangenlois.at

COME AND SEE LANGENLOIS

A place where wine means experience, gardens turn to theatre plays and modern architecture is pure delight.

Here you can find answers to any questions you may have:
Ursin Haus Vinothek & Tourismsservice GmbH
Kamptalstraße 3 | 3550 Langenlois
T +43 (0) 2734 2000-0 | F ext. -15
info@ursinhaus.at | www.ursinhaus.at
www.langenlois.at

Publisher: Ursin Haus, Langenlois; Concept and layout: Publicis Group Austria GmbH, Vienna; Photos: Robert Herbst, Andreas Hofer, Schlossfestspiele Langenlois Betriebs-GmbH, archives of Ursin Haus; Printing: Druckhaus Schiner; Translation: Ingrid Sonnleitner; ©2023

GOOD GROUNDS LANGENLOIS

GOOD GROUNDS FOR DELIGHT IN ANY EXPERIENCE

Visiting Langenlois means encountering the Kamp Valley at its most beautiful. Where extensive lowlands meet gently rolling hills in the perfect warm climate for growing wine, it is the wine that determines the rhythm of life. Shaped by its innovative and pioneering residents, Langenlois has been a centre of excellence for white wines for decades.

The fruitful and multi-faceted richness of this picturesque landscape is enjoyed best when taking a stroll through the spectacular gardens. They are among the very best in Austria for their multitude and quality. During the last decades, Langenlois has become a showcase for garden tourism and a widely recognised region of gardening excellence.

Friends of architecture are also well catered for. Delight in the fascinating symphony of enchanting cellar alleys telling their stories about the lives of winemakers in ages gone by and modern strongholds of wine culture.

If all this is not enough, you will be pleased to hear that hardly a week goes by without an exhibition opening, a concert being performed or a reading hosted.

This leaflet will give you many interesting addresses and events not to miss!

www.langenlois.at